CHRISTMAS EVE CHILDREN'S LITURGY: We need children from Kindergarten through 8th grade to be a part of our choir and gospel play at the 6:00 p.m. children's Christmas Eve Mass. If your child would like to participate by acting in the play, reading at Mass or singing in the choir, please find forms at the info desk or email Maria Flauto (mflauto@sthelen.com) for a copy. The participation form needs to be returned by Sunday, December 15th. There are practices for the play that are listed on the form. Call Maria Flauto with any questions or, for more information, at 564-7125.

CONFIRMATION MEETING: The next Confirmation meeting for 8th graders is on Sunday, December 8th right after the Life Teen Mass from 6:15-8:00 p.m.. This is only for students. Your saint reports are due in at this meeting. Please bring your book.

LET EVERY HEART PREPARE HIM ROOM (By: Suzanne Finnerty)

Advent is upon us! Is your heart ready for the coming of Jesus? With that said, it's a beautiful time to be Catholic, don't you agree? Our faith tradition is rich in prayers and devotionals that no one else can claim. Here are some suggestions to help you get ready.

Let's begin with Our Blessed Mother. She is THE champion for Christ – no one else compares. Through her many apparitions, she has been reminding us – no – IMPLORING us to PRAY THE ROSARY! If this powerful prayer is not part of your daily routine, now is the perfect time to begin.

Are you intimidated by the thought of saying 50 Hail Mary's? Start with 10. Beads are nice, but not necessary. A decade of fingers works just as well. (I often say the Rosary while driving, so that's my method when I'm behind the wheel). Most importantly, make it meaningful – state your intention, take your time, and meditate upon the mystery. It's that simple. If your excuse is that you don't like to pray alone, get Father Jay's Rosary CD and pray with him and our Legion of Mary. NO MORE EXCUSES!

Catholic prayer tradition encourages us to pray with the saints. Along with Our Blessed Mother, look to the saints as our prayer partners and intercessors. During these next 3 weeks, why not pick a saint to pray with every day? Read about their life and get to know them. As your saint intercedes for you, a friendship will grow, and you will gain a spiritual mentor whose only desire is to aid you on your journey to heaven. Wow! How can you turn that down?

Devotionals include wearing the Miraculous Medal, the Badge of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and the Brown Scapular – but not all at once! These small physical reminders of God's love have the ability to open the doors to many graces, when incorporated into your prayer routine. Pick one and let it guide your thoughts to Christ throughout the day.

In the "pine forest" at the back of the church, you will see an array of books, pamphlets, articles and devotional items including prayer cards, medals and scapulars. Ask the Holy Spirit for guidance and choose one thing to help you prepare your heart for the coming of the King of Kings.

Remember, during this busy time of preparation and expectant waiting, there would be no Christmas without Christ. Choose wisely as to how and to whom you devote your time. ASK for holiness, SEEK God, and continue to KNOCK on the door of His love and mercy. God delights in our prayers of faith and He promises to give us what we need.

In the coming weeks, as you practice your special devotion, strive to make the ordinary sacred, do small things with great love, and have a blessed and holy Advent!

CONFESSIONS: We will have an Advent parish penance service on Monday evening, December 16th, at 7:00 p.m. There will be 5 priests hearing Confessions.

JESUS AND THE JEWISH ROOTS OF MARY: Copies of the book, Jesus and the Jewish Roots of Mary are available at the back of the church. Fr. Jay will hold a book discussion of this book in the coming months.

DO YOU NEED PRAYER? The Heart of Jesus Prayer Ministry offers intercessory prayer sessions for all prayer needs, including physical, emotional and spiritual prayer. Please contact Sue White at 440-213-9242 to schedule a session. You may also request a prayer session on the ministry's site: https://www.heartofjesus.net/.

RELIGIOUS RETIREMENT ENVELOPES: There are envelopes for the Religious Retirement, you can put them in the collection basket any week in December.

AQUINAS ACADEMY: High School Catholic theology is every Sunday from 10:30-11:15 a.m. in the Bride's Room with James Hogan. This is a wonderful addition for any teens to build on what they learn in Life Teen! Join the fun. Sign-up with James Hogan at jhogan@sthelen.com.

CROSS TRAINING with James Hogan. Perhaps second only to Blessed Mary herself is Saint Francis of Assisi, God's own fool, who reinvigorated the Church of the Middle Ages from the bottom up. Join us at 9:45 a.m. every Sunday, 45 minutes in length, in the Music Room.

SAVE THE DATE: Come hear the Advent Fundraising Concert for Project Hope for the Homeless on Sunday, December 15, at 1:00 p.m. at St. Helen Church! Maude Cloutier, our 16-year-old violinist at the 8:30 a.m. Sunday Masses, studies at the Cleveland Institute of Music and will be accompanied by Elizabeth DeMio, collaborative pianist from the CIM, who has performed at Carnegie Hall. Rounding out the Cloutier Trio, Maude's younger sisters, Mara will play cello and Marianne will play violin. Prepare for Christmas by hearing a variety of classical and traditional Advent and Christmas music. Freewill donations will be accepted. All profits will go to Project Hope for the Homeless. Bring friends and relatives! Even without a donation, all are welcome to celebrate this Advent festival. For more information, please contact Marie Cloutier at 812-650-2977 or by e-mail cloutier.marie@icloud.com.

DO YOU WANT TO SPEND ETERNITY WITH JESUS IN HEAVEN?

The book, The 12 Steps to Holiness and Salvation from the works of St. Alphonsus Liguori (Call #: 248.482 LIG) is available in your parish library. In his book, St. Alphonsus Liguori discusses the twelve virtues necessary for salvation. This book has been recommended by many popes over the years. Jesus loves us so much that He died for our sins. In thanksgiving, we are called to follow Him and live as He commanded us, so that we can one day be with Him in Heaven for all of eternity. Make this book number one on your bucket list!

SUPPORTING EACH OTHER

A new support group for caregivers of those with dementia and Alzheimer's has begun at St. Helen. We will meet in the gathering space on Saturday morning, December 14th, immediately after 8:00 a.m. Mass. This group meets once a month and is a "faith-based group." Please pass the word to anyone you know caring for a loved one. Any questions, please feel free to call Carol Joyce at 216-978-1911.

HELP: (St. Helen, Edwards, Lucy Pro-Life) will be meeting on December 14, 2019 at St. Helen. We start off with Mass at 8:00 a.m. immediately followed by the meeting until 10:00 a.m. We are looking for parishioners from St. Helen to attend who have the burning passion to help save the lives of innocent infants who long to be born, and those threatened by euthanasia/assisted suicide. We would love to invite the young adults in our parish (anyone under 65 to this meeting as you possess soooo many skills, talents, passion and energy needed to save these lives). You are the protectors of life! Please contact Mike Hollowell at michaelhollowell@hotmail.com or by phone at 440-739-4062, or Denver Sallee at d2sallee@hotmail.com, should you need more information. See you there!

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

The Knights of Columbus is a Catholic Men's organization, 18 years and older, building faith in our volunteer works in our parish, school and community. For more information, please contact Mike Kalal at 440-552-4276 or mckalal73@gmail.com. Our next Admission degree will be Monday, December 9, 2019 at 7:00 p.m. in the Life-Teen Center. Please contact Mike Kalal if interested.

Our next Geauga Council 3304 meeting will be Monday, December 16, 2019 at 8:00 p.m., Rosary at 7:45 p.m.

Thank you to those attending our Movie Night on November 16 in the gymnasium. The movie Unplanned was shown about the Abortion industry. Donations collected went to Birthright and a soon-to-be newborn for their needs.

PARISH COUNCIL: If you have any questions, please feel free to contact any of these Parish Council members. See the website for email contact information.

Chairperson: Jeff Cicchella

Members: Clare O'Brien, Linda Koeth, Chris Evans, Francine Dome, Debra Finomore, Suzanne Finnerty, Kelly Reed, Dennis Blatnik, Bob McIlroy, Luke Reed, Ron Thompson, Nathan Frania.

IT'S A MATTER OF LIFE...

At no time do abortophiles become more indignant than when pro-lifers explain and publicize the many parallels between the original Nazi Holocaust and the abortion holocaust occurring in the United States right now. The intensity of their reaction to such analogies is almost comically vitriolic. They make no attempts to refute, only to condemn, the Holocaust comparison.

EUCHARISTIC MIRACLE: St. Padre Pio had a profound devotion to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. Padre Pio's devotion began before his priesthood. As a young man he would spend hours in Church adoring Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. After his ordination, he took a long time at the Consecration to the point parishioners complained about the amount of time spent. In several eye witness accounts, it was stated: "But as he started vesting for Mass, his body began to bend forward. As he slowly approached the altar, his body stooped over more and more, as if his body was being crushed under a heavy cross beam on his shoulders, his gait dragged, his face took on the sorrow of Our Lord and Savior. As the mystery of the sacrifice of the Mass unfolded, Padre Pio reaches the pinnacle of suffering at the moment of the elevation of the Host in Consecration. In his eyes read the agony of a mother who sees her son in a scaffold and sees Him expire. Padre Pio's Mass put him in the drama of Calvary. For him it was reliving the pain daily which wounded his soul and body. The Mass was his daily re-stigmazation.

PARISH LIBRARY - Discover the Eucharist

Do you know someone who has walked away from the Church/ Eucharist? Consider helping them to understand what they really walked away from. Your parish library can help. Among the many items in the library collection on the Mass, Eucharist, and apologetics, you might consider starting with 7 Secrets of the Eucharist (Call #: 234.163 FLY) or The Lamb's Supper: The Mass as Heaven on Earth (Call #: 264 .020 HAH). As always, the parish library catalog is online or go to the Parish App, type in "Parish Library" to look for items by title, author, subject, key words and series. Ask a library volunteer for assistance when you stop by the library after the Sunday morning Masses. We are here to help you!

SCHOOL NEWS

WHAT'S BUZZING AT SCHOOL: We completed our sixth week of the Second Quarter and first week of Advent. Each morning, our school gathers together for Advent Log. Each day a different grade leads our school in morning prayer and lighting of the Advent Log. Monday after school, our Geography Bee Club and Power of the Pen Team met to continue their preparation for the Geography Bee and Power of the Pen tournaments. Tuesday, students in the Third through Eighth Grades were able to attend the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Wednesday, our students and staff who have a birthday in December were able to dress down. Our band students had their weekly band practice with Mr. Bell to prepare for their upcoming Christmas Concert. Then after school, some of our students stayed for Chess Club. Thursday, our students had their weekly Spanish class with Senora Shamrock. During the day, our students were able to participate in the Santa Shop to begin their Christmas shopping for their family. There were several vendors that came to sell small items to our school students. Friday, our Eighth Graders led our school in Mass. Our students were visited by St. Nicholas who came to help spread a little Christmas cheer and remind us the true reason for the season. Please continue to keep our students and staff in your prayers as we continue to keep you in ours.

UPCOMING BOOK FAIR: This coming week, our school will be hosting a Follett Book Fair after school. You are welcome to visit the Book Fair on Tuesday (December 10) and Wednesday (December 11) from 3:30 to 6:30 p.m., Saturday (December 14) from 4:00 to 6:30 p.m., and Sunday (December 15) from 8:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

2020 CENSUS: Anyone interested in helping the community in which you live with the 2020 Census starting in March-April, please stop by the information desk and pick up a handout with information on how to sign up. You have to be 18 years of age, a US citizen, have an email address, and computer access. The positions are temporary part-time, pays $17/hr with 30 hours of paid training along with mileage allowance. If interested, go to www.2020census.gov/jobs and apply as soon as possible. Any concerns or questions, please email Hank Milnark at wing1102@windstream.net or call 440.543.8797.

SCHOOL NEWS

All high school teens are invited to join Life Teen as we march for those who don't have a voice. We will be attending the March for Life 2020 in Washington, D.C. Our plan is to leave at 11:00 p.m. on Thursday, January 23rd and travel to the Youth Rally and then the March. We will stay overnight at Country Inn & Suites in Capitol Heights Maryland. Saturday morning, we will tour the National Basilica, attend Mass and head to the JPII Exhibit. We will be returning approximately 11:00 p.m. on Saturday the 25th. Cost for this event is $90.00 per person for Life Teen participants. Permission forms are available on the St. Helen website, at the information desk and in the Life Teen Center. Forms and payment are due by January 1, 2020. (Please make checks out to Church of St. Helen) If you have any questions, please call Theresa at 440-781-7269 or Tammy at 330-842-1745.

All are invited to join Life Teen Sunday, December 17th, for XLT! We will begin after the 5:00 Mass and a short time for refreshments and fellowship.
