A Reflection by Jim Hogan
"Devotion to God Almighty"

America has settled back into summer after 4th of July barbecues and fireworks. John Adams had set a precedent for our celebrations, when he wrote to his wife Abigail about the 4th: "It ought to be commemorated as the day of deliverance, by solemn acts of devotion to God Almighty. It ought to be solemnized with pomp and parade, with shows, games, sports, guns, bells, bonfires, and illuminations."

Among all the founders, Adams and Jefferson believed that rights would not be based on a King, a President, or a Supreme Court, but rather, on the Supreme Being:

> We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.

Jefferson grasped a great paradox: our Declaration of Independence declares our dependence on God. Jefferson originally wrote, "We hold these truths to be sacred," which emphasized even more the divine origin to the blessings of life and liberty, but Benjamin Franklin suggested in editing the change to self-evident. Rights are not added to us like articles of clothing but are bequeathed to us like our skin and eye color.

This was an incredible moment in history. Whereas, all other countries defined themselves by ethnicity, race, or aristocracy, America was founded on an idea. America is a democracy based on a religious dogma: God exists, and He has given us rights, not the Constitution. G.K. Chesterton identified what lies at the heart of the American experiment:

> The Declaration of Independence dogmatically bases all rights on the fact that God created all men equal; and it is right; for if they were not created equal, they were certainly evolved unequal. There is no basis for democracy except in a dogma about the divine origin of man.*

The founders revered the Constitution, because it articulated human rights; it did not invent them. Rights that come from God cannot be taken away by the people or from the people, because they do not originate with the people. To become an American, a man or woman must only affirm the American principle: out of the many, one nation under God, with liberty and justice for all. We are a country constructed on a creed.

The Catechism states, "For there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been instituted by God." (CCC 1899) President George H. W. Bush said, "I believe that America will always have a special place in God's heart, as long as he has a special place in ours." God will bless America provided America continues to bless the name God.

BOOK REVIEW BY ONE OF OUR YOUNG PARISH LIBRARY PATRONS:

Brass Knuckles: The story of a young gangster who turned to the right, is a book that explains that the police are your friends, and that a little good example can go a long way in mixing adventure with prayer. This book, written by a priest, can be found in the Classics Section of the library.

BIRTHDAY CALENDAR

If you are interested in having your birthday announced at our parish Masses, please fill out the Birthday Calendar form that is in the bulletin this week. Please submit the form back to the school office by September 14th, 2018.

"IT'S A MATTER OF LIFE..."

Prior to Roe v. Wade in 1973, abortion advocates argued that the legalization of abortion would solve many "social ills," including poverty, crime and child abuse. They argued that the removal of "unwanted children" would improve our society. Sixty million, yes, sixty million babies have been removed since that time…and tragically, the promised improvements have not come to fruition.

Clearly, abortion has undermined the dignity and value of human life with devastating consequences. Life has been devalued.

Abortion inevitably changes a culture's focus from respecting and helping others to a focus on personal convenience and self. This in turn places all the weak, disabled, old and dependent in our society at serious risk and disadvantage. We must, as a nation, begin to connect the dots between abortion and the escalating devaluation of all life.

SUMMER CROSS TRAINING

All Ages Welcome! Four Evenings with C.S. Lewis – Tuesdays in July: July 10th, 17th, and 24th, 6:30-7:30 p.m. in the Music Room with James Hogan

A BOOK REVIEW BY SUZANNE FINNERTY

Let the Fire Fall, by Father Michael Scanlan – I loved this book so much that I am going to buy my own copy! The book is about how the Holy Spirit changed one man's life and the massive ripple effect it had on all those he encountered. For Father Scanlan, Baptism in the Holy Spirit was a powerful experience that was pivotal in transforming his already strong relationship with God. The willing surrender of his life – allowing Jesus to completely take over – permanently changed him. His way of praying went from him controlling his prayer time, to the Spirit welling up within him – praising God with a new intimacy. The words of Scripture took on power and a new depth, becoming personally meaningful. Through Baptism of the Holy Spirit, he received the spiritual gifts mentioned by Paul in 1 Cor. 12:8-10, proving that a divine power is at work within each one of us. Father Scanlan expounds on the vital importance of repentance and its necessity in conquering sin, which leads to true joy. The chapter on healing re-enforces the power of God's abundant graces and how we so often try to limit Him. The changes that Father Scanlan made at Steubenville University transformed the entire faculty and student body into the spiritual powerhouse we now know as Franciscan University. Read this book and invite the Holy Spirit into your life. You will never be the same!
